

Tea, First Aid Course, Annual Carnival Set by 259th St. PTA

According to Miss Frances Dastarac, principal of the 259th St. School, a kindergarten Mothers Tea will be held on Sept. 24, from 10:00 to 11:20 a.m., in the school auditorium. The program is sponsored by the health department but will also include safety and general school rules. Mrs. Myrna Drovis, school nurse will speak.

Refreshments will be served by the PTA members. A first aid class, sponsored by the 259th St. PTA, will start next Wednesday, Sept. 29, in the Harbor Hills Auditorium. The class will run for eleven weeks from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. Mrs. Gwendolyn Dole, of the Adult Education Department of the Los Angeles City Schools, will be the instructor. Mrs. Dole has taught first aid in this area for several years.

Even though this class is sponsored by the PTA, it will be open to anyone interested. Child care will be provided so that mothers with small children may attend. Additional information may be obtained by calling Mrs. W. E. Zell, DA 8-8166.

Mrs. F. Deek and Mrs. R. W. Gerhart, ways and means chairmen, have done an excellent job getting together food, games and entertainment, for the annual Fall Carnival, to be held on the school grounds Oct. 1 from 6 to 9 p.m.

Mrs. J. O. Powers is in charge of the spaghetti dinner with Mrs. H. B. McDonald and E. G. Jackson attending to pies and coffee. Mrs. Dan Bowling will sell hot dogs, lemonade will be served by Mrs. J. M. Gasser. Assisting Mrs. Lloyd Adams with cotton candy, popcorn and snow cones will be Mrs. J. R. Stanton, T. B. Biglin, and C. R. Chitwood.

The games to be provided for the children will be five cent fish pond, W. J. Kelley; ten cent fish pond, J. W. Creager; ring toss, F. Perkins Jr.; grab bag, D. M. Hatch; bean bag, Sidney Horton; knocking down milk bottles, R. E. Christofferson, Kiddy rides, G. R. Dexheimer and Robert Butler. There will be cartoons shown by Mesdames G. H. Nelson, H. M. Raljohn and C. S. Bernhart.

For those who are interested in knowing what the future holds, there will be a fortune telling booth. Mrs. C. E. Aspitale will have a florist booth and the country store will be set up in a bungalow by Mrs. C. L. Wilson, W. H. Farwell and G. Chambers. Novelties will be sold by Mrs. R. P. Boderman.

This is the big money-making project the PTA has each year, the proceeds are used to carry on the welfare work of PTA. We hope you will all participate and have a wonderful evening.

Las Vecinas Sets Mind New Year Begins Sept. 30 On Hospital Needs as

When Las Vecinas Woman's Club reconvenes for the 1954-55 term on Sept. 30 under the gavel of Mrs. Roy M. Nash, president, the after-business program will highlight the group's pet philanthropic project, Harbor General Hospital.

Dr. Herschel Kopp, resident surgeon at the institution, will give a picture of conditions there, and the hospital chaplain will point out individual cases and their particular needs.

Mrs. Lloyd M. Hennen, program chairman, arranged the year's calendar, with the second event, slated for Oct. 28, focusing on the physical, mental, and emotional phases of the "Art of Being a Woman." The Charm Duo, Daisy Fairbanks and Rhama Cabbage, who have University of Southern California and adult education faculty experience in their background, will present the lecture and demonstration.

Husbands will be invited to share a timely topic, "Are We Losing World War II?" on Nov. 18, when Freeman Lusk, originator and moderator of radio and TV's "Freedom Forum," takes the speaker's rostrum. Hampton Players will entertain with a one-act production on Dec. 8, and on

Recent Stork Shower for Mrs. Bay

Mrs. Joseph Bay, 2558 Torrance Blvd., was the honoree at a stork shower given recently by Mrs. Reid Bundy and Mrs. James H. Van Dyck at the latter's home at 2554 Torrance Blvd.

Guests placed their gifts in a pink and white bassinet. A pink ceramic baby buggy formed the centerpiece on a white lace tablecloth over pink damask. Prizes from shower games played were won by Mrs. Howard Percy, John Swartz, and Gene Phillips. Ice cream cakes topped with pink booties were served.

Baby Clothes Win Ribbons

Mrs. Claire H. Williams, 1348 W. Carson St., won blue ribbons for entries of a wool baby bonnet, knitted baby jacket, knitted baby set, knitted baby suit, and novelty needlework toy. This year's fair theme is "The American Way." More than 45,000 exhibits are on display covering an area of 450 acres.
